Homework due: Monday, 1 April 2019

Dear CE2 Students!

How exciting– we’re learning this beautiful poem for the poetry contest on Monday, 5th April!

1) Write the poem on a piece of paper and draw a beautiful, colourful picture! The most beautifully written and decorated poems will be made into a poster and put on the wall in school!

2) Learn the first 12 lines; if possible learn the entire poem.

Remember to practice out loud, use good elocution! Say each word clearly.

To help you memorize, read a line, then cover it up and say it again.

Repeat until you know the line. In no time at all you’ll remember it!

Don’t forget the title and author when reciting.

Wind On The Hill

By A. A. Milne

No one can tell me,
Nobody knows,
Where the wind comes from,
Where the wind goes.

It's flying from somewhere
As fast as it can,
I couldn't keep up with it,
Not if I ran.

But if I stopped holding
The string of my kite,
It would blow with the wind
For a day and a night.

And then when I found it,
Wherever it blew,
I should know that the wind
Had been going there too.

So then I could tell them
Where the wind goes...
But where the wind comes from
Nobody knows.
